Adult Christian Initiation

If you are interested in exploring the Catholic faith or completing your initiation into the Church please call the Parish Center.

Infant Baptism Preparation If you wish to arrange a baptism at Sacred Heart Church, please contact the Parish Center at 516-379-1356 ext.10. One of our baptism coordinators will be happy to arrange a time to meet with you. Ideally, both Godparents should be practicing Catholics. We will review the procedures for the sacrament and you will be able to fill out all the necessary paperwork. Baptisms are held on the first and third Sunday of each month at 2pm. First time parents need to attend a baptism class. They are held on the last Monday of each month in the Parish Center at 7:30pm. Crying babies welcome! Godparents are encouraged but not required to attend.

Sacrament of Matrimony Please contact the Parish Center at least one year in advance of the intended date of the wedding. A priest or deacon of the parish will interview you, set the wedding date and help you register for the required marriage preparation program. Marriage Preparation is held in the parish three times a year. Please contact Deacon John: DeaconJohn@sacredheartnm.org for dates and times.

Sacrament of Reconciliation A priest is available each Saturday at 4:00PM in the church. Please don't hesitate to call a priest at the Parish Center for an appointment for Confession at another time.

Sacraments for the Homebound If you or a family member are not able to attend Mass and would like to receive the Sacraments of Communion, Reconciliation and/or Anointing of the Sick, please call the Parish Center.

Prayers for the Sick

In an effort to make sure parishioners who are ill are properly prayed for we would like to keep our Sick List as up to date as possible. Names will remain for one full month, but will be removed at the end of every month, unless there is a request by the family to extend the prayers for the following month.

Ministry of Praise Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For World Youth Day

We pray the World Youth Day in Lisbon will help young people to live and witness the Gospel in their own lives.

Let us remember all our parishioners who have been called home to our Loving God.

The Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation, is Tuesday, August 15th.

This feast celebrates Mary's Assumption into heaven. It is one of three feasts of Mary that are Holy Days of Obligation for Catholics in the United States. January 1 is the feast of Mary, the Mother of God, and December 8 is the feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. The assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven has long been held as an important Catholic belief. The belief was not defined as dogma, however, until 1950 by Pope Pius XII. The dogma teaches that Mary, who was without sin, was taken, body and soul, into the glory of heaven.

Mass will be celebrated on Monday, August 14th at 5pm and Tuesday, August 15th at 9am, 12pm and 7:00pm

(Please note that the evening Mass for Holy Days has been moved to 7:00pm)

Prayer For The Safety of Our Service Men & Women

Almighty and Eternal God, protect these men and women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety to all who love them. May they ever praise you for your loving care. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anointing of the Sick will take place

Friday, September 1, 2023

I am pleased to announce that Father Brigandi has invited me to return to Sacred Heart to offer our Annual 9/11 Memorial Mass on Sunday, September 10, 2023 at 12pm.

We invite our parishioners to join us in celebrating this special Mass commemorating the 22nd Anniversary of 9/11/01.

The names of those among our Parish Family who perished will be read during this liturgy. We encourage any surviving family members to attend as well. In our prayers we will also remember all those who lost their lives on that tragic day. We will remember the firefighters, police officers, and emergency rescue personnel who were killed in the line of duty on that day.

We would also like to encourage any of our parishioners who are active or retired firefighters, police officers, or emergency rescue personnel to attend "in uniform" as a way of showing their pride, support, and acknowledgement of their service to the community.

If you have any further questions you may contact Father D'Angelo at: jjdangelo@optonline.net

BLESSING OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

In the next few weeks, colleges and universities will be opening for a new school year. Many of our young people from Sacred Heart will be entering college for the first time, and others will be returning for another year.

I ask all of our young people in college to take along with you the faith and values instilled in you by your parents, teachers and parish community. You will find that as you grow older, your faith becomes more and more your strength for the journey. Be sure to keep the Lord as a special part of your life through prayer, attending Mass, and receiving the Sacraments. I'd like to invite all those going to college in the fall to attend the 10am Mass on Sunday, August 20th for a special blessing.

Take your education seriously and work to the best of your ability to accomplish your goals.

Be sure to keep yourself safe and healthy and choose your friends wisely. A good friend brings out the best in us.

On behalf of the parish community, I wish all our college students the best of luck in this exciting phase of your life. I promise you our prayers and ask God to bless you and all your endeavors.

I ask all of our parishioners to join me in prayer and in offering best wishes to our college students. They are our hope for the future.

Fr. Stephen

LOOKING AHEAD—SUNDAY CONNECTION—AUGUST 20, 2023

Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus heals the daughter of the Canaanite woman because of her great faith.

Next week we move ahead in our reading of Matthew’s Gospel. This week we read about Jesus walking on the water and the disciples’ confession of faith that Jesus is the Son of God. If we were reading Matthew’s entire Gospel, we would have read about Jesus’ debate with the Pharisees about Jewish purity laws. Jesus argues that it is not what goes into us that makes us unclean; he is referring to the strict Jewish dietary rules. Instead our words and our actions—what comes out of us—make us unclean because they emerge from a heart that is unclean.

Knowing about Jesus’ debate with the Pharisees helps us to understand next week’s Gospel. In fact the story heightens the surprise and shock we feel as we hear Jesus’ exchange with the Canaanite woman. The woman, who is not Jewish, approaches Jesus, requesting that he heal her demon-possessed daughter. At first Jesus ignores her; he says nothing. The disciples ask Jesus to send her away, and Jesus agrees, remarking that he was sent to minister to the Jews alone.

The woman persists, paying homage to Jesus, and yet Jesus denies her request again. He even insults her, using a Jewish word of derision for Gentiles, “dog.” But the woman cleverly turns Jesus’ insult into an affirmation of faith. Only then does Jesus grant her request and heal her daughter.

Behind Matthew’s text we can hear this early Christian community’s struggle to understand how God’s selection of Israel is consistent with two events: Israel’s rejection of Jesus and the Gentiles’ acceptance of Jesus. Just as Jesus was surprised by the faith expressed by the Canaanite woman, so too the first Christians were surprised that the Gentiles would receive the salvation God offered through Christ. In today’s second reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans, we hear the apostle Paul considering this same concern.

The faith that the Canaanite woman expresses is an affirmation of and confidence in God’s abundant mercy. Yes, salvation comes through Israel, but it overflows for the benefit of all.
