If you are interested in exploring the Catholic faith or completing your initiation into the Church please call the Parish Center.

Infant Baptism Preparation If you wish to arrange a baptism at Sacred Heart Church, please contact the Parish Center at 516-379-1356 ext.10. One of our baptism coordinators will be happy to arrange a time to meet with you. Ideally, both Godparents should be practicing Catholics. We will review the procedures for the sacrament and you will be able to fill out all the necessary paperwork. Baptisms are held on the first and third Sunday of each month at 2pm. First time parents need to attend a baptism class. They are held on the last Monday of each month in the Parish Center at 7:30pm. Crying babies welcome! Godparents are encouraged but not required to attend.

Sacrament of Matrimony Please contact the Parish Center at least one year in advance of the intended date of the wedding. A priest or deacon of the parish will interview you, set the wedding date and help you register for the required marriage preparation program. Marriage Preparation is held in the parish three times a year. Please contact Deacon John: DeaconJohn@sacredheartnm.org for dates and times.

Sacrament of Reconciliation A priest is available each Saturday at 4:00PM in the church. Please don't hesitate to call a priest at the Parish Center for an appointment for Confession at another time.

Sacraments for the Homebound If you or a family member are not able to attend Mass and would like to receive the Sacraments of Communion, Reconciliation and/or Anointing of the Sick, please call the Parish Center.

Prayers for the Sick

In an effort to make sure parishioners who are ill are properly prayed for we would like to keep our Sick List as up to date as possible. Names will remain for one full month, but will be removed at the end of every month, unless there is a request by the family to extend the prayers for the following month.

Pope's Prayer Intention: April

For the use of the new technologies

Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

Prayer For The Safety of Our Service Men & Women

Almighty and Eternal God, protect these men and women as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety to all who love them. May they ever praise you for your loving care. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your support of our Lenten Soup Supper. All the food was donated by businesses and parishioners, so that any money collected at the door will benefit the food pantry.

Thank you to all of my volunteers who worked tirelessly setting up the room and then serving the soup. It would not have happened without your assistance. We had help from the Vincentians, confirmation students, and members of the parish.

The following businesses donated delicious soups, macaroni and cheese, breads, and cakes. Please think of them when you need to shop.

WHY ARE THE BANNERS COVERED?

In the Catholic tradition, statues and images are covered during Lent, particularly in the last two weeks, to symbolize a period of penance, focus on the Passion of Christ, and heightened anticipation for Easter, with the veils removed during the Easter Vigil.

Symbolic of Penance and Austerity:

Covering the statues and images is a visual reminder of the Lenten season, a time of spiritual preparation and reflection, often involving fasting, prayer, and almsgiving.

Focus on the Passion:

The veils are a visual cue to help people focus on the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus, which are central themes of the Lenten season.

Heightened Anticipation for Easter:

The covering of the statues creates a sense of longing and anticipation for the joy and celebration of Easter, when the images are unveiled during the Easter Vigil.

Origin and Tradition:

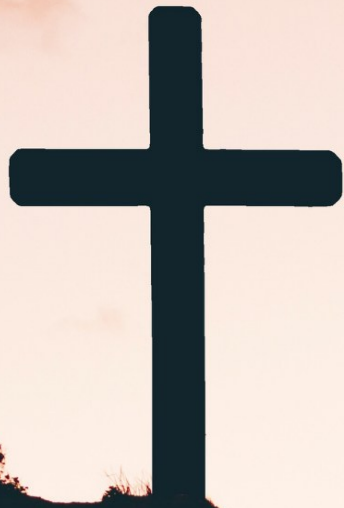

The practice of covering statues and images during Lent is an ancient tradition within the Roman Catholic Church, with roots in the former liturgical calendar and the practice of covering the altar with a cloth during Lent.

Timing:

The veiling typically begins on the Fifth Sunday of Lent, which marks the start of Passiontide, and the veils are removed before the Easter Vigil.

Unveiling:

The unveiling of the statues and images is a significant moment, symbolizing the triumph of Christ's resurrection and the restoration of light and joy.

LENTEN FAMILY HOLY HOUR

Adore

Join us at this time of Eucharistic Revival in our Church for a night of adoration, praise and worship, prayer, and reflection as we draw near to the holiest days of the year!

In today's Gospel, Jesus is the model of compassion and kindness. He shows us how to be merciful and nonjudgmental. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and mercy into our hearts and into the hearts of those suffering in poverty.

If you or someone you know needs assistance, please call 516-379-1376 or email us at SVDP@sacredheartnm.org.

Lent: A Time For Giving

This year Sacred Heart invites all our children to participate in our Lenten Activity: KIDS HELPING KIDS

Each week during Lent we are asking the children to bring an item to be donated to Parish Outreach.

These 'kid friendly' items are a great way for families to talk about how even the youngest parishioners can make a difference to someone in need.

Week 6 (April 13th):

Easter basket treats

Please put your donations in the box each week when you come to Mass.

Thank you for your generosity.

Sacred Heart Pro-Life Committee Meeting: Tues 4/8 at 700pm

We will be having our monthly meeting for the Sacred Heart Pro-Life Committee. We will be discussing the parish's upcoming Pro-Life events and current topics in the Pro-Life ministry. We will be meeting in the Parish Center. NEW MEMBERS ALWAYS WELCOME. Refreshments will be provided.

Mission statement:

With prayer and spiritual guidance from our Blessed Mother and our Lord Jesus Christ, we will promote the right to life of the unborn to the natural end of life. Our ministry will raise awareness of the responsibility of Catholics to stand with the Church's uncompromising defense of life from conception to natural death.

Holy Hour for Life will be on Wed 4/9 at 7pm in the Church

This month will be a Lenten Family Holy Hour. All are welcome!

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM CONTINUES

Join us in prayer for mothers & their unborn children

If you received your Spiritual Adoption Pledge Cards, please return the pledge portion into the Adoption Mailbox at the back of Church. If you have not received your Spiritual Adoption Pledge Cards, please pick one up at the back of the Church.

One Month Developing Baby

Your spiritually adopted baby has been quite active over the past month. Already your baby is 10,000 times bigger than at conception. Your baby has developed the foundations of his brain, spinal cord, and nervous system by the 20th day. His heart began to beat on the 21st day and is pumping blood through its own circulatory system. The blood type can be different from his mother's. Your baby is most vulnerable during the next month of being aborted. Pray that the Lord of Life might move the heart of his mother to give him the most precious gift of all--the gift of life.

Fifth Sunday of Lent: Gospel Reading John 8:1-11Background on the Gospel Reading

The Gospel for the fifth Sunday of Lent continues to offer lessons about God's mercy and forgiveness. Last Sunday we heard the Parable of the Prodigal Son from the Gospel of Luke. Today we hear not a parable, but the report from John's Gospel of an encounter among Jesus, the scribes and Pharisees, and a woman caught in adultery. In John's Gospel, the conflict between Jesus and the scribes and Pharisees occurs much earlier than in the Synoptic Gospels. Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem is reported at the beginning of John's Gospel. Even after this event, Jesus continues to teach in the Temple. After returning to Galilee for a time, Jesus again enters Jerusalem and cures a man on the Sabbath. From this point forward in John's Gospel, the Pharisees are described as making plans for Jesus' arrest and seeking his death.

In the chapter preceding today's Gospel, Jesus was teaching in the Temple area. Feeling threatened by his teaching and his actions, the chief priests and the Pharisees are already sending guards to arrest Jesus. The guards return, however, without arresting Jesus because they have been impressed by his words. Even more than this, some among the crowds are considering the possibility that Jesus is the Messiah. The chief priests and the Pharisees change their plan. Before making an arrest, they seek to gather more evidence against Jesus by posing a question intended to trap Jesus.

Today's Gospel begins by reporting that Jesus is again teaching the crowds in the vicinity of the Temple. The scribes and the Pharisees approach Jesus, bringing a woman who has been caught in the act of adultery. They put to Jesus the question of what ought to be done in this case.

The Pharisees state clearly that according to the Law of Moses, those caught in the act of adultery were to be stoned to death. Under Roman occupation, however, the Jewish people did not have the authority to execute people; this is cited in John's passion narrative. To answer the Pharisees' question, Jesus must propose an action that will be either contrary to the Law of Moses or contrary to Roman law. The purpose of the question appears to be similar to the question about paying taxes found in Mark 12:13-17. Either answer, yes or no, will support the Pharisees' case against Jesus.

Jesus avoids the trap, however, by offering an answer that was not anticipated by those who posed the question. Jesus, after writing on the ground with his finger, addresses those who stand before him and suggests that the one without sin cast the first stone. Jesus then returns to his writing. This Scripture reading, by the way, is the only evidence we have of Jesus writing. Yet there are no specific details about what he wrote.

We can easily imagine the scene as the Pharisees and the elders disperse, one by one. Jesus has eluded the trap they had prepared. We might also give credit to the elders and the Pharisees who do not, in the end, claim to be sinless and worthy of passing judgment. These Pharisees are not as self-righteous as the portrait found in the parable of the pharisee and the tax collector (See Luke 18:9-14).

Left alone with the woman, Jesus asks where the accusers have gone. With no one remaining to condemn the woman, Jesus (the one who truly is without sin) sends the woman on her way, refusing to pass judgment on her and exhorting her to avoid future sin.

Jesus' response to those who accuse the woman is more than a caution to us about making judgment of others. It is a profound lesson in divine mercy and forgiveness. As sinners, we are all unworthy to judge the sins of others and we would stand convicted by God for our transgressions. Yet Jesus, the one without sin and thus our judge, offers us who are sinners his mercy and forgiveness. Redeemed by Jesus' compassion, we are sent to sin no more and to live in God's love and peace.
