Dear Parishioners,

When I opened up the doors of Outreach this week I was stunned by your generosity. Thank you so much for your contributions financially and physically. When I left on Thursday, my shelves were getting fairly empty, but with your donations of food the shelves are full for the beginning of the week. We were able to purchase meat for all of our families as well. Thank you for all of your contributions. We also received some bicycles which are being distributed to some of our children.
