Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome
In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that if the temple is destroyed, He will raise it up again in three days. This is the true hope He offers. When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give a sign of hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

If you or someone you know needs assistance, please call 516-379-1376 or email SVDP@sacredheartnm.org

Prayer for Veterans

Almighty God,

I give thanks today for the men and women who have served with courage and sacrifice. Their dedication reminds me of the cost of freedom.

Bless all veterans with peace of mind, healing in body, and hope for the future. Be close to those who carry unseen wounds and restore them with Your grace. Help us honor their service not only with words, but also with care, respect, and gratitude. Teach us to never take their sacrifices for granted.

Lord, surround veterans and their families with Your protection, and let them feel the deep appreciation of a grateful nation. May they know lasting honor, comfort, and rest in You.

Amen

The Thank You Project

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Background on the Gospel Reading

The story of the cleansing of the Temple is found in all four Gospels. In Matthew, Mark, and Luke, Jesus is upset with the deceitful practices of the vendors and expels them for that reason. But in John, Jesus' authority is contrasted with the authority of the Temple cult and is a criticism of the cult itself.

The story is composed of two parts, Jesus' action in the Temple and Jesus' predictions about the Temple's destruction. The time of year is the sacred feast of Passover. If the many pilgrims to Jerusalem during Passover were to have animals for the sacrificial rituals of the feast, it was necessary to sell cattle in the Temple and to change the unclean Roman money. By denouncing this, Jesus is cutting to the core of the Temple cult.

The story is really about Jesus' fate, not the Temple's fate, revealing that Jesus, not the Temple, is the locus of God's presence on earth. As they often do in John, the Jews misunderstand Jesus' words. This gives John the chance to explicitly state his point. Although this is the beginning of his ministry, Jesus is already speaking of his coming death and Resurrection.

Christians sometimes point to Jesus' anger in this passage as a way to point out Jesus' humanity. But this would miss the powerful point of the entire Gospel, that the Word became flesh. The point is not that Jesus' anger proves he is human. It is that a human being, in his words and actions, can claim the authority of God.
